Second Paper: April 14

• The next assignment is based on Barlow and Barlow and on Cole.
• Like the last one, briefly summarize the main issues that they raise. Then pick a specific JUSTICE SYSTEM topic.
• Read and use at least five academic sources on that topic and write about it.
• Then link the added information back to B&B and Cole. The rules are the same, but this time you need to write about a justice system topic, like police brutality or jury selection, rather than a social justice topic.
For Next Monday: written assignment

1. Why is effective assistance of counsel important?
2. What is indigent counsel like today?
3. What factors contribute to ineffective counsel?
4. Who is responsible for the quality of counsel?
Jury Selection

• What is the significance of the jury in our system of justice?
• Does the racial composition of the jury matter? Always?
• How does racial discrimination in jury selection occur?
• Under what circumstances would you care who served on a jury?
• What characteristics of individuals should be used to bar people from serving on a jury?
• Should the composition of a jury be controlled by the court? If yes, how?
